explore the real jamaica in the natural rasta way

South Coast Day 1

May Field Falls - Pelican Bar - Treasure Beach

Mayfield Falls

The road to the falls, full of potholes, leads through farmland hills. We stop on our way for pictures, a drink or a chat with people of the community. Mayfield Falls is one of the greatest waterfalls to explore!

Pelican Bar

Have you ever been to a bar in the ocean? I am sure you love to join! Get in the fishermenboat and enjoy the splendid view over the reef. Grab a drink or jump from the decking in the ocean.

Treasure Beach

5 bays form Treasure Beach at the south coast of Jamaica. It has an authentic Jamaican vibe. The ocean waves can be strong so be careful. Take your breakfast at Smurff's and your dinner at Jakes; delicious!

South Coast Day 2

Little Ochi - Blue Hole Gut River - Pusey Hill - Mandeville

Lovers Leap

The sad story about this scenic point is about two lovers who were separated by their slavemaster and flung themselves over the lover's leap.

Little Ochi

Well famous for its great spot and delicious fish; Little Ochi. South coast Jamaica has plenty fishermen villages where you can eat, basic or luxe, fresh fish. Give it a try!

Guts River

A true hidden gem at far south coast, off the beaten path, Alligator pond bay. Underwater river, fresh drinking water, hidden caves, queen Victoria; there is a lot of history in the surroundings.

South Coast Day 3

Heritage Pinnacle - Kingston - Holywell Natural Park Blue Mountains

Pinnacle

The first Rastafari community, established by Leonard Howell in 1940 was a self-reliant community of 45,000 members. Farmers, craftsmen and teachers shared their faith under the motto; 'One God, One Aim, One Destiny.'

Bob Marley Museum Kingston

Kingston: Or go to down-town Kingston and visit Tuff Gong and Culture Yard, or up-town to the museum and Devon House. Not a Bob Marley fan? Visit Port Royal and Lime Cay or Cane River instead.

Holywell

In the Blue and John Crow Mountains you'll find national park Holywell

- stunning view over Kingston
- 5 walking trails & bird watching
- cabins, wood fire, rangers, camp
- relaxation at its purest

Portland Day 4

Morning Hike Holywell National Park - Coffee - Waterfall - Port Antonio

Blue Mountains

The climate diversity has led to the growth of lush vegetation; trees and flowering plants. Coffee grows at a height of 1300m. in soil rich in nitrogen and phosphorous. Blue Mountain peak 2256m./ 7402ft. is reachable in a 3-4 hrs hike.

Hike Holywell Blue Mountains

One of the 5 trails is Waterfall Trail. In about one hour you walk through a valley of ferns. Depending on rainfall the waterfall is a dripping stream or a fern waterfall with a pool big enough to dip your feet in the cool cool water.

Fish Dunn Falls

Hidden from the road in the community of Spring Hill the Fish Dunn Falls are surrounded by huge rocks. A small entry fee is asked but then you can enjoy the scenery and the pool.

Portland Day 5

Beach - Port Antonio

Winnifred Beach

One of the only Jamaican free beaches where hotels still haven't sprung up. Locals clean the beach, sell drinks and food. For you to appreciate; relax, swim and enjoy the turquoise colours of the ocean.

Boston Beach

Close to Port Antonio the surfer-friendly waves of Boston Beach are well known. With Boston Jerk Center close by and the bar at the parking lot you can spend a whole day swimming and watching surfers.

Light house & Folly Ruins

At the other end of the bay in Port Antonio lies Folly ruin and lighthouse. The house was built by an American for his wife, but he used salted water to mix the cement, which weakened the material.

Portland Day 6

Maroon village - Moore Town - Nanni Falls - Port Antonio

Maroon Heritage of Moore Town

The village at the Wild Cane River was founded in 1739. Here the Maroons signed a peace treaty which forbade them to harbour runaway slaves. Moore Town is governed by a Colonel.

Nanni Falls

Amazing, beautiful, natural place hidden in the jungle only reachable by climbing down over rocks. Nanni, the leader, organized the guerilla against the British and became National Hero in 1982.

Portret Maroon Rasta's

Maroon, derived from the Spanish word cimarrón (wild) refers to runaway slaves who established their own settlements in the mountains. They formed well organized underground military units against the British. (autonomy since 1739)

Portland Day 7

Manchioneal off the beaten path - meeting Jamaicans - swim - eat fish - chat and laugh

Fishing Village Manchioneal

The best fish is when you buy it at the little harbour of, for instance, Manchioneal and let someone cook a meal while you chat to villagers with a Red Stripe in your hand: cheers!

Reach River hidden in farmland

Jamaicans are not going to Reach Falls often as entry fee is spoiling fun. The lower parts are accessible though. Or you dip into the Reach River close to Manchioneal village hidden in farmland.

Manchioneal Turtle Beach

Fishing village Manchioneal with Reach River and hidden gem Turtle Beach is a lovely off the beaten path area good for nature, laid back and meeting cousin Popson.

North Coast Day 8

Blue Lagoon - Blue Hole Ochi

Blue Hole Ochi

Access at several places along the river. A location guide will show all the secrets and make sure you stay safe. You can jump, swim and watch others. Food and drinks are available.

Blue Lagoon

Just out of Port Antonio, close to San San Beach, is the lovely bay of Blue Lagoon, wellknown for the movie. The water is a mix of fresh and salt water. Once they thought it was bottomless, but they found out it is 200ft. deep.

Bars, fruit stalls and food

When you don't know where to look, you might pass all the great, local, tiny places where they sell the sweetests and nicest fruits. It taste nowhere so delightful as in Caribbean Jamaica.

North Coast Day 9

Likkle Dunn's or Dunn's River Falls - Nine Mile Mausoleum

Dunn's River Falls

This is one of the most visited places in Jamaica. A popular activity is climbing up the falls and hanging out in one of the several lagoons or pools along the way. Start at the Caribbean Sea, all the way down.

Likkle Dunn's

A beautiful waterfall at the ocean of Ochio Rios to relax, have a drink and a swim. Tip de guys who keep it clean and be thankfull for little places like this where every-one is welcome.

Mausoleum Bob Marley

Nine Miles with bars, arts & craft shop, musicians and restaurant is famous for village and mausoleum as Bob Marley is born and buried in the hills of Saint Ann. History, culture and fun come together.

North Coast Day 10

Martha Brae Bamboo Raft - Glistening Waters Falmouth - Negril

Martha Brae Bamboo Raft

The 30 ft (9m.) long bamboo raft will show you lush green scenery of dense jungle with bamboo trees, ackee, breadfruit and calabashes. Feel free to swim and grab one of the nice fruits on your way to quench your thirst.

Lumious Lagoon

Luminous Lagoon, Glistening Waters Falmouth starts from 7 pm. The water glows a beautiful blue and becomes illuminated when microscopic organisms are disturbed. Your captain will explain the science behind this effect.

Sunset Negril

The most romantic sunsets with stunning colours given you spectacular moments at Negril 7-mile beach. Reggae lovers will dance at one of the parties along the beach at night.
